How would you describe their music?

How would you describe their musical skill and artistry?

Who were their influences?

How do they compare to their contemporaries, or to those who have come before them?

Who have they influenced?

What makes them important figures musically and historically? What's the difference?

Why have certain artists been considered important throughout the history of popular music?

What are the criteria for selection?

What categories for induction are most important to you?

What categories for induction would be most appropriate for your given artists?

How do you decide who makes the list (and who doesn’t)?

How can you communicate why certain artists deserve to be inducted?

How can you communicate their legacy effectively?

How can you convince others of their musical excellence?

How would you persuade someone who knows nothing about them, or better yet, someone who is not a fan?

Could you make the case for an artist that you don’t like?