

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

ROCK & ROLL HALL OF FAME'S JOY RIDE LIFTS SPIRITS

Nonprofit organizations can request an appearance at info@rockhall.org

The Rock & Roll Hall of Fame is bringing the power of music to the community. Beginning today, fans can spot a branded Rock Hall van, "Joy Ride," playing music in their neighborhoods and at food distributions and celebratory activities, among other locations while maintaining social distancing protocols.

The Joy Ride's appearances highlight music's ability to connect and bring us together while delivering on the Rock Hall's mission to engage, teach and inspire through the power of rock.

You can join at home by listening to the Joy Ride's playlists on the Rock Hall's Spotify channel, which include a mindfulness mix, feel good distraction mix, and career defining playlists for Inductees.

The Rock Hall's Rock Boxes located along Rock & Roll Blvd. in downtown Cleveland are also tuned up to play uplifting songs.

Requests for Rock Hall Joy Ride appearances can be made by nonprofit organizations to info@rockhall.org.

Check out rockhall.com/explore-online for more ways to connect with the Rock Hall and your favorite artists online, including virtual tours, and free educational resources at Rock Hall EDU.

###